Policy for student FEES for employees at St. Peter School: It was voted on and passed at the last meeting. The policy reads as follows: "All current employees of St. Peter Catholic School may bring their children to school here at the following rates: $300 for the 1st child and $100 for all others subject to a $500 family maximum. This applies to children in any level/grade including pre-school. For non-Catholic employees hired for the 2010-2011 school year and after, the fee will be $300 per child for any level/grade including pre-school. In addition, all Catholic employees are expected to comply with the covenant agreement in regard to church contributions and all non-Catholic faculty and staff are expected to tithe to their own churches." Currently, children of employees pay only for lunch and other "extras", non-sustaining and or tuition fees.
