Fr. Tom Alber's 25th Anniversary of Priesthood on Wednes., June 2 will be celebrated here at St. Peter. Please keep the day open – all are invited.

No Playing – Crying babies. "Let the children come to me" (Mark 10:14) It is not only important, but also beautiful to see a family-including children – praying together, especially with the Parish community at Mass. Liturgy is a time to set good examples and teach children about praying as a community. Teaching requires discipline. Most parents take great care not to let young children distract others at Mass. During this time of teaching children, if the situation becomes distracting, please take them to the cry room or foyer. You can continue to teach and set a good example in these locations – you will still hear the Liturgy. Please do not allow children to play or write in hymnals, or mar the pews with toys. Fr. Kevin and Fr. Tom and the entire congregation ask if they could have just seven minutes of quiet time to deliver and listen to the homily. Please be considerate.
