October Mass Attendance Count

This October, we will once again take an attendance count at all weekend Masses for the entire month. This directive comes from the Presbyteral Council of the Diocese. Per that directive, we will conduct the October count in both 2025 and 2026, and in 2027 we will conduct a full 12-month count. These attendance counts help the diocese with planning of pastoral services and priest assignments.

Recuento de Asistencia a Misa de Octubre

Este octubre, realizaremos nuevamente un recuento de asistencia en todas las misas de fin de semana de todo el mes. Esta directiva proviene del Consejo Presbiteral de la Diócesis. Según dicha directiva, realizaremos el recuento de octubre tanto en 2025 como en 2026, y en 2027 realizaremos un recuento completo de 12 meses. Estos recuentos de asistencia ayudan a la diócesis con la planificación de los servicios pastorales y la asignación de sacerdotes.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

As long as Moses kept his hands raised up,
Israel had the better of the fight,
but when he let his hands rest,
Amalek had the better of the fight. (Ex 17:11)

Psalm:

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Ps 121)

Second Reading:

Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed,
because you know from whom you learned it,
and that from infancy you have known
the sacred Scriptures,
which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation
through faith in Christ Jesus. (2 Tm 3:14)

Gospel:

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones
who call out to him day and night?
Will he be slow to answer them?
I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done
for them speedily." (Lk 18:7)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

We are all the widow in Luke's Gospel. We are vulnerable. We feel small in the estimation of the world. We feel ignored. But Jesus is telling us to be bold in prayer, to bring our needs before the judge who will always hear our case.

Observances for the week of October 19, 2025

- Sunday: 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time;
World Mission Sunday
- Monday: St. Paul of the Cross, Priest
- Wednesday: St. John Paul II, Pope
- Thursday: St. John of Capistrano, Priest
- Friday: St. Anthony Mary Claret, Bishop
- Next Sunday: 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Devotions, Explained!

The Our Father, also known as The Lord's Prayer, is found in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. Universally beloved in most traditions of Christianity, its words are those of Jesus Christ himself as he answers his disciples' queries on how best to pray.

Prayer for Life of Mission

Dear God,
You are the one who finds a way in the darkness, and clears the path for those You love. Help us to trust in Your call, and to answer generously to the unknowns we face,
knowing You will never leave us alone.
Amen.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC – BENEATH THE SURFACE
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Prayers We Don't Say

It has always confused me: why a judge?

Jesus could have compared prayer to the subject who requests a gift of his king. He could have compared it to the child who asks a favor of a parent. But in the parable of the widow and the judge, Jesus compares prayer — specifically constant, unwearying prayer — with the marginalized person who doggedly pursues her claim through an unforgiving legal system.

It's not a rosy or reassuring picture. So what is he trying to tell us?

Unlike a king or a parent, a judge has strictly drawn lines which he cannot, under any circumstances, cross. He can only help people who bring their case to court. Even good, earnest judges cannot render justice if charges are not brought.

God is all-powerful. But that doesn't make Him a meddler. He will not force his way into our problems. What would be the point? What is our life on earth for, if it is not to teach us how to turn willingly to God, in every instance — adoration, gratitude, need?

Today, I sat down and made a list of problems I don't pray about. When I was done, I looked at the list and asked myself: why not? Why don't I pray about these things? Some are huge issues over which I have absolutely no control, and prayer feels futile. Some are small grievances I never even considered mentioning to God.

If I prayed about them all, my life would be totally consumed by prayer. Constant, unwearying prayer. The kind of prayer Jesus calls me to in the parable of the widow and the judge: continual surrender of myself to the mysterious, limitless power of God.

Praying that way could make me tired. The widow was tired, too — but she kept bringing her charges. She got justice. And her judge wasn't even a nice guy.

So say the prayer. Bring the charges. Our judge is one who wants to help, but He won't overstep His bounds.

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS
Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Las Oraciones que no Decimos

Siempre me ha confundido: ¿por qué un juez?

Jesús podría haber comparado la oración con el sujeto que pide un regalo a su rey. Podría haberlo comparado con el niño que pide un favor a sus padres. Pero en la parábola de la viuda y el juez, Jesús compara la oración, específicamente la oración constante e incansable, con la persona marginada que persigue obstinadamente su reclamo a través de un sistema legal implacable.

No es un panorama grato ni tranquilizador. Entonces, ¿qué está tratando de decirnos?

A diferencia de un rey o de un padre, un juez ha trazado estrictamente líneas que no puede, bajo ninguna circunstancia, cruzar. Solo puede ayudar a las personas que llevan su caso a los tribunales. Incluso los jueces buenos y serios no pueden impartir justicia si no se presentan cargos.

Dios es todopoderoso. Pero eso no lo convierte en un entrometido. Él no se meterá a la fuerza en nuestros problemas. ¿Cuál sería el punto? ¿Para qué sirve nuestra vida en la tierra, si no es para enseñarnos a dirigirnos voluntariamente a Dios, en todos los casos de adoración, gratitud, necesidad?

Hoy, me senté e hice una lista de problemas por los que no oro. Cuando terminé, miré la lista y me pregunté: ¿por qué no? ¿Por qué no oro por estas cosas? Algunos son asuntos enormes sobre los que no tengo absolutamente ningún control, y la oración me parece inútil. Algunos son pequeños agravios que ni siquiera consideré mencionarle a Dios.

Si ora por todos ellos, mi vida sería totalmente consumida por la oración. Oración constante e incansable. El tipo de oración a la que Jesús me llama en la parábola de la viuda y el juez: la entrega continua de mí mismo al poder misterioso e ilimitado de Dios.

Orar de esa manera podría cansarme. La viuda también estaba cansada, pero seguía trayendo sus cargos. Consiguió justicia. Y su juez ni siquiera era un buen tipo.

Así que di la oración. Presenta los cargos. Nuestro juez es uno que quiere ayudar, pero no sobrepasará Sus límites.

All Saints and All Souls

This year presents the unusual event of both All Saints Day and All Souls Day falling on a weekend. All Saints Day is Sat. Nov. 1 and All Souls Day is Sun. Nov. 2. With All Saints Day falling on a Saturday, per USCCB decree, this year it is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation. As All Souls Day IS a Holy Day of Obligation like all Sun-

We will remember have passed away part of the 5:30 PM Mass on Nov. 1 which will be a bilingual Mass. You are encouraged to participate in that Mass and lift up the deceased members of your family as part of our remembrance.

We will also have our Table of Remembrance set up for the month of November. You are encouraged to bring a photo or some small memorabilia to honor your loved ones. Due to space limitations we ask that photos be of modest size, no larger than 8 x 10, and please bring only framed photos. Put your name on the back so that we can return it to you at the end of the month. There will be a basket at the main entrance of the church where you can leave your photos.

Todo Santos y Toda Almas

Este año se presenta el evento inusual de que tanto el Día de Todos los Santos como el Día de los Fieles Difuntos caen en fin de semana. El Día de Todos los Santos es el sábado 1 de noviembre y el Día de los Fieles Difuntos es el domingo 2 de noviembre. Al caer el Día de Todos los Santos en sábado, según el decreto de la USCCB, este año NO es el Día de los Fieles Difuntos un Día de Precepto, SÍ como todos los domingos.

Celebraremos en nuestra parroquia un homenaje a los feligreses fallecidos 2024, como parte de la misa de las 17:30 h del 1 de noviembre, que será bilingüe. Los animamos a participar en esta misa y a honrar a sus familiares fallecidos como parte de nuestro homenaje.

También tendremos nuestra Mesa del Recuerdo preparada para el mes de noviembre. Se le anima a traer una foto o algún pequeño recuerdo para honrar a sus seres queridos. Debido a limitaciones de espacio, solicitamos que las fotos sean de tamaño moderado, no mayores a 8 x 10, y por favor traiga únicamente fotos enmarcadas. Asegúrese de poner su nombre al dorso para que se la devolvamos a finales de mes. Habrá una canasta en la entrada principal de la iglesia donde podrán dejar sus fotos.
