EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Lord, that we may see
People of goodwill generally assume they're not complicit in racism or racist practices. That's because we describe racism as attitudes, words, and acts intended to harm or subordinate people whose origins are different from ours. However, racism involves omissions as well as actions: in what we fail to do or say to make equality tangible for everyone. Racism can also be institutionalized in laws, education, hiring practices, economic opportunities, zoning regulations, and voting restrictions. Racism operates best under the surface. As Pope Francis reminds us: Let none of us imagine that the conversion of hearts isn't meant for us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 27:4-7; 1 Corinthians 15:54-58; Luke 6:39-45 (84). "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?"

Build it up
Ever wonder what the kingdom of God will be like? Well, look around, because you're already living in it. Not seeing all the love, peace, and justice you were promised? The kingdom of God began with Christ's death and Resurrection and will be brought into perfection by Christ at the end of time. Until then, it's our job as Christians to build the Kingdom up. Pray, discern what God is calling you to do, and act to make this world more harmonious and respectful of the dignity of others. And then of course, wait with hope.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:3-9; Mark 10:17-27 (347). "For men it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

Your Rx for Lent
While many Christians focus on feasting today—ahead of tomorrow's fasting—it's also a good time to survey a smorgasbord of penitential spiritual practices, perfect for the upcoming Lenten season. Saint John Chrysostom identifies five in one of his homilies: "I have shown you five paths of repentance: acknowledgement of your own sins, forgiveness of our neighbor's sins against us, prayer, almsgiving, and humility." Sounding more like a doctor than one of the doctors of the church, he concludes: "Now that we have learned how to heal our wounds, let us apply the cures." How will you fill your prescription?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 1:10-16; Mark 10:28-31 (348). "Do not act in compliance with the desires of your former ignorance."

Wednesday, Mar 02, 2022
ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE
Add another step to your Lenten journey
Ash Wednesday is full of rituals and traditions of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving. But it includes an extra step. As Pope Francis puts it, it is a time "to find concrete ways to overcome our indifference." So in addition to your regular Lenten practices, try to care more deeply about the suffering and disaffected in your community. Volunteer at your parish, a local charity, or for a social cause. Or simply go for a walk and reflect on how Jesus is present in those you encounter along the way.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joel 2:12-18; 2 Corinthians 5:20—6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (219). "And your Father who sees in secret will repay you."

Thursday, Mar 03, 2022
THURSDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; MEMORIAL OF KATHARINE DREXEL, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER
Exceed expectations
Katharine Drexel was a wealthy heiress in late 19th-century Philadelphia. She rocked that world one day: "Miss Drexel Enters a Catholic Convent—Gives Up Seven Million," the Philadelphia Public Ledger announced when she decided not to simply become a nun but to found her own religious order. Head of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, she used her family fortune to found the nation's only Catholic university for African Americans (Xavier University in New Orleans), schools for Native Americans, and more. Are you, too, being called by God to do something unexpected?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Luke 9:22-25 (220). "What profit is there for one to gain the whole world yet lose or forfeit himself?"

Friday, Mar 04, 2022
FRIDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE
A cleansing fast
A couple years ago, two young white women decided that they needed to more closely align their spiritual practices of Lent with their commitment to being anti-racist. They chose, as they wrote in Sojourners magazine, to try fasting from media that lacked a diversity of voices and to spend Lent engaged with books, films, and podcasts written or directed by women of color. Their goal was to take a step toward repentance, which is one of the hallmarks of Lent. To repent is to turn away from sin, including the sin of racism. What Lenten practice of prayer, fasting, or almsgiving might you contribute toward being more intercultural and helping end racism?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:1-9a; Matthew 9:14-15 (221). "This, rather, is the fasting that I wish."

Saturday, Mar 05, 2022
SATURDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY
Tax forgiveness
Tax collectors in Jesus' time were particularly despised. The Roman occupiers auctioned off the right to collect taxes to the highest bidders, who then aggressively collected taxes from their neighbors in order to turn a profit on their "investment." When Jesus calls Levi the tax collector to follow him and attends a celebration with Levi's tax-collecting cohorts, the shock among the Jewish leaders is evident. But Levi became Matthew, the evangelist, and wrote a vivid account of the Good News. Jesus sees beyond the worst in us and brings out the best. Follow his lead.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 58:9b-14; Luke 5:27-32 (222). "Jesus saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the customs post. He said to him, 'Follow me.'"

The classes will be held once a week in the Parish hall during the Lenten Season on Mondays, beginning Monday, February 28th at 6:30pm, with the last class being held after Easter on Monday, April 25th.

From Mary McCoy, Principal

"When you're sitting on a fence and waiting for a sign, be sure to recognize it when God sends it to you."

Okay, it's not Pulitzer Prize winning material, but in my world, these words were something greater this week. It's a message that spoke straight to my heart. Scrolling through a social media page, I saw a friend made this post. Don't you love how sometimes God uses our friends and family around us to also speak to us?

I am sitting at an intersection this week where there's a choice to be made…somewhere around I Have No Idea What's Going to Come My Way Street and What Should I Do Avenue. Maybe, some of you are familiar with those roads. Maybe not. When this post popped up, I knew that God was talking to multiple people, and because I saw it too, I was fortunate enough to be one of the chosen ones to receive this message. The words were exactly the words I needed to hear. They were a promise. A promise that God is listening to my prayers and hearing me ask for encouragement and guidance. He knows my confusion. He knows my uncertainty. It's His amazing way of letting me know that He is there. Sometimes, I think it's easy to get caught up in chaos around us and our own hectic lives and schedules, that we fail to see when His answer is right in front of us. He's listening. He's with us. And He'll answer in His time.

So, in the future, I'll try to Be Still more. To quiet my mind and be present. To remain more patient and just listen. Even when the answer we want to see in bright neon lights isn't in bright neon lights, or even the message we were expecting, the conversation is wonderful. Because it's a conversation with God. Out of all of the people in this world, He's taken the time for me. To be with me today. And all of my days. What a sweet reminder of His presence in my life and in my heart.
