Embody your faith

Being church is a different identity than simply going to church. If we are truly the Body of Christ, then we embrace this identity with a sense of purpose. Saint Paul describes the church as a body with many parts that function for the sake of the whole. Some of us have obvious gifts like preaching, teaching, or offering a healing presence. Others may benefit from prayer, spiritual direction, faith sharing, or a discernment retreat to come to an awareness of the particular service to which we're called. Joy is in the discovery of the Spirit's personal invitation to you.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Romans 8:8-17; John 20:19-23 (63). "There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord."

You will not be orphaned

Although the devotion to Mary as "Mother of the Church" is ancient, today's memorial is relatively new—having been instituted in 2018 by Pope Francis when he decreed it will be celebrated annually on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday—to "encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the church." Reflect on how you can "mother" the church—as well as your family and friends, your community and work place, and even yourself. You don't have to be or have a mother in the traditional sense to know how to offer loving care. Standing beneath the cross, said Francis, Mary "welcomed all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters"—that means you, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572a). "He said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.'"

Let go and let God

On this day in 1925, Blessed Matt Talbot—40 years sober—died enroute to Sunday Mass. Though Alcoholics Anonymous wouldn't exist for another 10 years, Talbot had already discerned the central truth of AA's Twelve Steps. "It's as hard to give up the drink as it is to raise the dead to life again," he said. "But both are possible and even easy for our Lord. We have only to depend on him." Talbot is the patron of those who struggle with alcohol addiction. Ask his intercession for yourself or another who needs to kick a harmful habit.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16 (360). "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify fy your heavenly Father."

Honor and emulate a trailblazer for racial justice

On this day in 1910, Father Stephen Theobald was ordained for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul-Minneapolis, the first black diocesan priest ordained on U.S. soil. Theobald was born in Guyana in 1874 and later worked as a journalist in Canada before being recruited to Minnesota by Archbishop John Ireland, a fierce racial justice advocate. For his entire priestly career, Theobald served at Saint Peter Claver Catholic Church in Saint Paul, the only black parish in the state. He also served in the local chapter of the NAACP, advocating tirelessly for black lives. May we all follow his lasting example of saying "Yes!" to God and "No!" to injustice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Let it be known this day that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant."

Sing with the Syrian saint

Although you may never have heard of him, today's saint left a lasting imprint on the church. Ephrem of Syria (306-373) is known for his writing—primarily for works that battled heresies—but even more so for introducing singing as a form of worship and education. Known as the Harp of the Holy Spirit, he cleverly wrote lyrics that educated the faithful against false teaching. Syriac churches still sing hymns that originated with him. The next time a hymn moves you, say a prayer of thanksgiving to Saint Ephrem.

MEMORIAL OF EPHREM OF SYRIA, DEACON, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:41-46; Matthew 5:20-26 (362). "[B]e reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Let's get our bearings

"Why are we here?" is an age-old question. As Dostoyevsky writes in The Brothers Karamazov: "The mystery of human existence lies not in just staying alive, but in finding something to live for." One might think that Christians have it easy because Jesus clearly spells out our purpose for living: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind . . . [and] you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:37-39). But on a day-to-day basis in any given situation, it is not always obvious what the loving response is and whether we are prepared to offer it. That is where prayer comes in. It can provide just the right environment for hearing God's finest whispers leading to the path of love.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32 (363). "There was a tiny whispering sound. . . . A voice said to him, 'Elijah, why are you here?'"

One, holy, catholic, apostolic

In our recitation of the Nicene Creed at Sunday Mass, we profess our belief in "one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." Those four adjectives are called the four "marks" or "attributes" of the church. One, because despite the many divisions and denominations of Christianity all worship one God, one Spirit, and one Lord, Jesus Christ. Holy, because, like sacred objects, the church is set apart for God's purpose. Catholic, from the Greek word for "universal," because it is for all without excluding any group or class of people. Apostolic, because it arises out of the efforts of the apostles, both the original 12 and others, like today's saint, Barnabas, who were later named apostles. And like you and me, called today to embody these same attributes.

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:33-37 (580; Gospel 364). "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"

"Exactly what kind of diocesan meeting did you think we were going to hold, AI?"

From the principal, Ms. Mary McCoy

Prevention. Protection. Accountability.

CREATING A SAFE ENVIRONMENT FOR ALL

The Church is committed to Prevention, Protection and Accountability in creating a safe environment for all. Together we can conquer the evils of clergy sexual abuse and hold all individuals accountable, no matter what their rank. With additional reforms, building upon the Charter for the protection of Children and Young People, and in union with Pope Francis's Moto Proprio, the American Catholic Church stands united against the scourge of sexual abuse as we continue on a path of reconciliation and healing.

COMMUNITY GARDEN VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Come volunteer to help with the community garden. We will be there Mondays and Thursdays @ 9:00AM, except on major holidays or rain.
Contact Jann Bethel @ 660-631-4981

Our deepest sympathy to Mike and Deanna Donnell on the death of Mike's sister Jeannie. May she rest in peace and God give comfort to her family.

THE SPIRIT'S ACTIVE POWER

The mystery of the Trinity refers to one God in three persons. We frequently acknowledge Jesus as "the second person of the Trinity," but referring also to the Spirit as a "person" comes less naturally. In religious art, the Holy Spirit often appears as a dove or, as in today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, tongues of fire. Much rarer are images of the Spirit as a "person" in recognizable human form. Today's readings do not settle the issue of how to picture the Spirit, but they certainly give shape to the Spirit's active power in the world and in each human heart. In Acts, the Spirit enables people to speak and understand a variety of languages. Paul's letter to the Corinthians praises the Spirit for all kinds of spiritual gifts, services, and "workings." Finally, in John's Gospel, Jesus calls the Spirit our Advocate and our divine teacher.

CORPUS CHRISTI

On June 19, 2022, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)

launches a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the real presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Over the next several years, the dioceses of the USA will recommit ourselves to our Eucharistic identity and will reaffirm our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

The best way to show your faith in the eucharist is attendance and participation at Mass. The Mass is the source and summit of our Catholic faith.

Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Weekend of June 25-26

The Diocese of Jefferson City is consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. To encourage a greater participation in the celebration of this patronal feast day, Bishop McKnight has mandated the transfer of the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary from Saturday June 25, 2022 to Sunday June 26, 2022, replacing the 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time.

The love of Mary's heart is meant to be a model for the way we all should love God. The fact that her heart is immaculate, that is sinless, means that she is the only fully human person who is able to really love God in the way that he should be loved. Through this devotion we recognize her extraordinary holiness and the immense love she bestowed on Jesus as his mother, the person who was called to share in and cooperate in his redemptive sufferings.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Pentecost Sunday

At the Mass during the Day

O God, who by the mystery of today's great feast sanctify your whole Church in every people and nation, pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit across the face of the earth and, with the divine grace that was at work when the Gospel was first proclaimed, fill now once more the hearts of believers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

USHERS AND GREETERS NEEDED AT ENGLISH MASSES

We are in need for new volunteers to serve as ushers and greeters at all of the English-language Masses. What a great way to show hospitality and Christ-like love for your fellow parishioners. Who makes a good usher/greeter? Men, women, teens, husbands and wives, even entire families! With enough volunteers on the schedule, you won't be scheduled that often. This is just one more way that we, as Catholic Christians, show our faith through PARTICIPATION in a ministry at Mass.

Please CALL DIANA IN THE OFFICE or talk to ONE OF OUR PRIESTS.

Food for the Poor to visit parish

This weekend, June 4-5, we will have a priest who works with the charity Food for the Poor visiting us. Their mission is to link the church of the First World with the church of the Third World in a manner that helps both the materially poor and the poor in spirit. The materially poor are served by local churches, clergy and lay leaders who have been empowered and supplied with goods by Food for the Poor.

Food for the Poor is one of God's instruments to help the materially poor and to renew the poor in spirit. If you would like to become a regular donor to this worthy charity you can find out more information on their website: foodforthe poor.org

ORACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Domingo de Pentecostés

Misa del día

Dios nuestro, que por el misterio de la festividad que hoy celebramos santificas a tu Iglesia, extendida por todas las naciones, concede al mundo entero los dones del Espíritu Santo y continúa obrando en el corazón de tus fieles las maravillas que te dignaste realizar en los comienzos de la predicación evangélica. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.
